I'm Axil Kollist's mother. I had him on March 4th, 2000 when I was 43 years old. What a gift from God! I have been a world peace crusader since I was 16 years old. I wrote a song called "World Peace Before 2021" so that people could have a GOAL with a time frame.

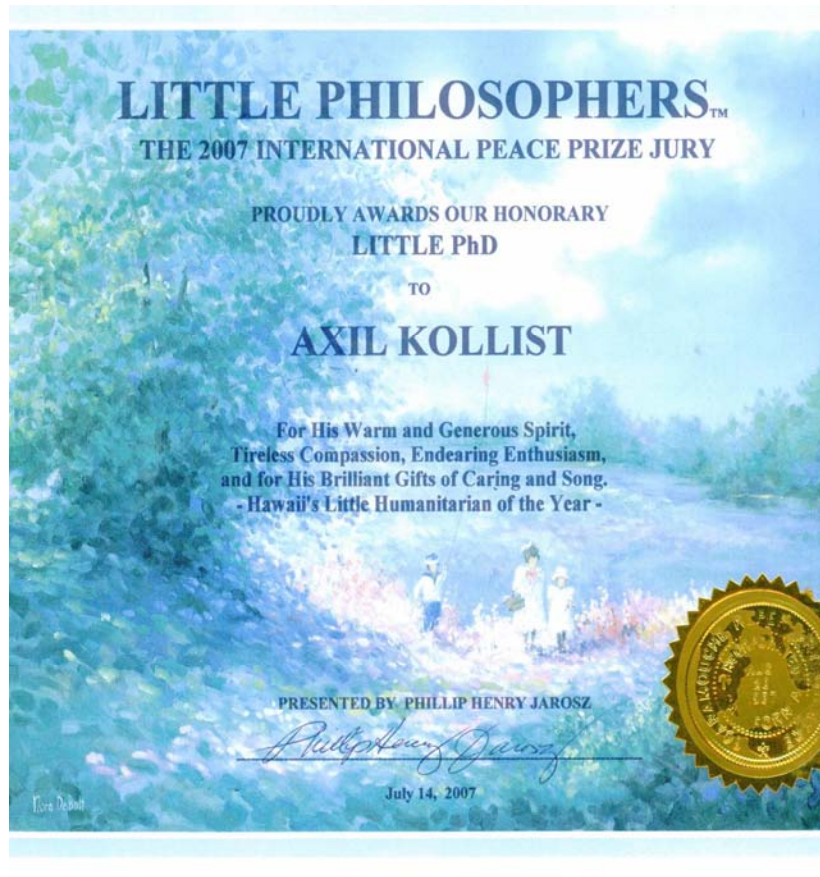

I tried to popularize the song without much success. Of course, my little boy knew of the song and of my CD "Xillion the Rock Opera." When he was six years old he announced to me that he'd decided what he wants to be... A rock star. Being a rock-and-roll musician myself, I was very happy to find out about his desire. I told him I'd start to teach him to sing. We started doing vocal exercises and scales. After a few days he told me he wanted to learn my song "World Peace Before 2021." I told him that "World Peace Before 2021" was much too difficult for him to learn, but he begged me. I told him there were too many 'grown up words' for him. He insisted that I teach him how to sing the song. So I started by teaching him the meaning of the 'grown up words' such as oppression, starvation, corruption, human rights, greed, war, pain, etc. He was stunned to hear about the sad existences many people must endure and he vowed to make a difference. He learned the song "World Peace Before 2021" and began to sing it in public. We set up a webpage for him. www.worldpeacebefore2021.com Children started to reach out to him. He was contacted by the Pastor who oversees the care of 120 orphans in Kenya. Axil was distraught to think that these children did not have enough food, clothes, or medicine, that they had NO toys, and that, worst of all, they had no parents. Axil has sent these destitute children many gifts as well money for food and medicine. He wants to find a means to see that no child on Earth is without food and water, toys, shelter, and medicine. So he campaigns for world peace. He distributes free World Peace Before 2021 bumperstickers. By the way I am a huge fan of Barrack Obama so it's actually me who's responsible for the free Obama bumperstickers which, by the way, have been very well received! Axil knows that Mom and Dad are for Obama, so, he is too. He's only eight years old. Please join Axil's quest for World Peace Before 2021. All you really have to do is embrace the idea. In 1963, President Kennedy set another seemingly impossible goal. He set a goal that the USA land a man on the moon before the decade's end. His goal was reached and just in the nick of time.... In July of 1969. So, let's all watch another seemingly impossible goal be attained. Let's all adopt the slogan "WORLD PEACE BEFORE 2021" and watch what happens. Thank you for visiting www.worldpeacebefore2021.com Regards, Axil's Mom at worldpeacebefore2021@hawaii.rr.com.
